

Have a Nice Day!

A good paragraph has :

- A topic sentence (the first sentence of the paragraph) stating the main idea or point of the paragraph,
- The supporting sentences after the topic sentence help to develop the main idea. These sentences provide details and specific examples as proof of your point,
- Clear, logical, and coherent thoughts that are transitioned in an orderly manner from one sentence to the next.
- A final or concluding sentence that restates or wraps up the main idea of the topic sentence.

Write three supporting details for each main idea or topic sentence below.
