

Homophones

- A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word, but has a different meaning, spelling, and origin.
- Example: night and knight, flour and flower, see and sea

Circle the correct homophone and write it in the blank to complete each sentence.

1. My _____ (write, right) shoulder got hurt.
2. The teacher ordered _____ (four, for) picture books for the students.
3. Did you _____ (hear, here) that Mrs. Sherrie is moving to Ohio?
4. We've _____ (been, bean) working on this project for almost a month.
5. We're not _____ (aloud, allowed) to talk during the exams.
6. The _____ (sent, scent) of the perfume triggered my allergies.
7. Rebecca quickly glanced _____ (threw, through) the newspaper.
8. Drew spent the _____ (hole, whole) day organizing his home office.

Write two sentences using two of the homophones (words) that you didn't circle.

9. _____

10. _____

- A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word, but has a different meaning, spelling, and origin.
- Example: night and knight, flour and flower, see and sea

Circle the correct homophone and write it in the blank to complete each sentence.

1. My right (write, right) shoulder got hurt.
2. The teacher ordered four (four, for) picture books for the students.
3. Did you hear (hear, here) that Mrs. Sherrie is moving to Ohio?
4. We've been (been, bean) working on this project for almost a month.
5. We're not allowed (aloud, allowed) to talk during the exams.
6. The scent (sent, scent) of the perfume triggered my allergies.
7. Rebecca quickly glanced through (threw, through) the newspaper.
8. Drew spent the whole (hole, whole) day organizing his home office.

Write two sentences using two of the homophones (words) that you didn't circle.

9. Place your homework packets here in the basket.

10. My cat fell down the hole and was rescued by firemen.