

Inflectional Endings : Double the Final Consonants

- Double the final consonant in a word ending in a single vowel and a consonant (stop, stopped, stopping). Adding the second consonant ensures that the short vowel sound of the base word is maintained.

Add -ed and -ing to the base words . Write the new words on the lines.

hop + ing = _____	stop + ing = _____
begin + ing = _____	run + ing = _____
grab + ed = _____	sit + ing = _____
snap + ed = _____	shop + ing = _____
stir + ed = _____	refer + ed = _____
hug + ing = _____	rob + ed = _____
blur + ed = _____	swim + ing = _____

Choose any two -ed or -ing words from the table above and write the sentences using each of them.

1. _____

2. _____
