

Name: _____

PLURAL PRONOUNS

- A pronoun is a word that takes place of one or more nouns.
- Plural pronouns are we, them, us, they, and you.
- Example: Did they win the championship game?

REPLACE THE UNDERLINED WORD OR WORDS WITH A PLURAL PRONOUN IN EACH SENTENCE.
REWRITE EACH SENTENCE USING THE CORRECT PLURAL PRONOUN.

1. Tim, Pam, and I ran six miles this morning.

2. There was a message from the school's office for Oliver, Larry, and me.

3. Rover and Hannah reached the school late this morning and got a tardy.

4. I ordered a cup of coffee while waiting for Richard, Drew, and Kylie.

5. The crowd cheered for their home team.

6. Mandy, Ralston, and Roy planned a surprise birthday party for Britney.

7. Have you and your friends completed the science lab report?

Name: Answer Key

PLURAL PRONOUNS

- A pronoun is a word that takes place of one or more nouns.
- Plural pronouns are we, them, us, they, and you.
- Example: Did they win the championship game?

REPLACE THE UNDERLINED WORD OR WORDS WITH A PLURAL PRONOUN IN EACH SENTENCE.
REWRITE EACH SENTENCE USING THE CORRECT PLURAL PRONOUN.

1. Tim, Pam, and I ran six miles this morning.

We ran six miles this morning.

2. There was a message from the school's office for Oliver, Larry, and me.

There was a message from the school's office for us.

3. Rover and Hannah reached the school late this morning and got a tardy.

They reached the school late this morning and got tardy.

4. I ordered a cup of coffee while waiting for Richard, Drew, and Kylie.

I ordered a cup of coffee while waiting for them.

5. The crowd cheered for their home team.

They cheered for their home team.

6. Mandy, Ralston, and Roy planned a surprise birthday party for Britney.

They planned a surprise birthday party for Britney.

7. Have you and your friends completed the science lab report?

Have you completed the science lab report?